

Two-night Stay at Hotel Saugatuck Bed & Breakfast Getaway,
Lake Kalamazoo, Saugatuck
Value $600 - Donated by Hotel Saugatuck

This boutique hotel has a 5-star rating and includes 2 gourmet breakfasts served in your room. Book your two-night stay between Sunday to Thursday, and experience the Hotel Saugatuck, a luxuriously modern B&B getaway and the town's premiere boutique hotel.

The hotel is located at the gateway of Saugatuck's Historic District, just a short walk to downtown Saugatuck & Douglas, where you will find many unique shops, art galleries, and fine dining establishments. The atmosphere along Michigan's Art Coast is reminiscent of vintage Small Town America.

The in-room gourmet breakfasts are a premium dining experience designed to enhance your stay at the Hotel Saugatuck. We cater to individuals who value convenience, personalization, and the indulgence of a delicious and beautifully presented morning meal without leaving the comfort of your room.

Multi-color Throw Quilt

$200 Value – Donated by Barb Welk

This colorful cotton blend quilt “Japanese Lantern” was created in 2001 by master quilter Sharon Betts from Rollins, Montana. Red and black are dominant colors on the front of this beautiful quilt with red as the reverse side color. The throw measures 68” x 68” and would also make a great wall hanging. This machine sewn quilt was donated by Barb Welk.

Ironworks Sculpture Garden Art
Value $100 – Donated by Jeffrey Filo

This black steel stake stands 60" tall and will watch over your garden. Jeffrey Filo Sculptures are very popular metal sculptures inspired by the natural world and our connection to it: patterns and variations of the plants, stone, sunlight, and water. Starting from a general sketch, he lets the piece evolve organically as he works. Pieces offer different flows that engage you as you decide which visual path to take through the piece. This garden art piece was donated by Jeffrey Filo Sculpture 2975 Peach Creek Ct, Fennville, MI 616-422-5475.

Two Large Proven Winner Shrubs

Value $100 – Donated by Spring Meadows Nursery

Two large Proven Winner shrubs will be awarded to each of 5 winners. These Proven Winner shrubs are a collection of shrubs chosen for their supreme quality, performance and low maintenance. They are top performers—healthy, disease-resistant, and provide vibrant colors and bountiful blooms throughout the season. Donated by Spring Meadows Nursery, Grand Haven, Michigan. Pictured shrubs are for example only.
